

Proof of Language Skills

To stay enrolled for one of the following artistic Bachelor's and Diploma programmes, students need to provide a German language certificate at level B1 according to the Common European Framework of Reference. Students have to submit their language certificate before the enrolment confirmation for their third semester.

This applies to the following study programmes:

Diploma programme Fine Arts,
Bachelor's programme Fashion & Technology,
Bachelor's programme Sculptural Conceptions / Ceramics,
Bachelor's programme Space&designstrategies,
Bachelor's programme textile-art-design,
Bachelor's programme Graphic-Design and Photography,
Bachelor's programme Time-based and Interactive Media Arts

To stay enrolled for one of the following artistic Master's programmes, students need to provide a German language certificate at level B1 according to the Common European Framework of Reference. Students have to submit their language certificate before the enrolment confirmation for their third semester.

This applies to the following study programmes:

Master's programme textile-art-design,
Master's programme Visual Communication (Graphic-Design and Photography),
Master's programme Time-based Media

To stay enrolled for one of the following artistic Master's programmes, students need to provide a German language certificate at level B1 or an English language certificate at level B2 according to the Common European Framework of Reference. The English language certificate needs to be submitted at the time of enrolment. Otherwise, students need to provide a German language certificate before the enrolment confirmation for their third semester.

This applies to the following study programmes:

Fashion & Technology,
space&designstrategies,
Sculptural Conceptions / Ceramics

To enrol for one of the following Bachelor's and Master's programmes, students need to provide a German language certificate at level B2 according to the Common European Framework of Reference. Students have to submit their language certificate before being admitted to the study programme.

This applies to the following study programmes:

Architecture
Industrial Design
Programme for Teachers
Media Culture & Art Theory
Cultural Studies

For PhD programmes, the criteria apply as defined in the supervision agreement.

Note: The admission boards of the following artistic Master's programmes confirm the required language skills as part of the entrance exam.

Interface Cultures
Postdigital Lutherie